

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Beautiful shaft that commemorates Washington's fame in the city that bears his name than this: "He was a well bred gentleman." The Washington whom these celebrations bring to our minds is he who was first in what he understood by reason of his noble traits of character. He loved independence for its own sake. The lesson which the celebration of his birthday teaches us is to be true Americans, to honor our flag and never falter in our duty to it.

Of Arabia, Egypt, Japan, all South and Central America, Cuba, West and East Indies, Hawaiian Islands, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, Mexico, the Bahamas, England, Scotland, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, Belgium, Germany, Austria, France, Russia—the whole world knows and uses "Rough on Rats" for Bed Bugs, Cockroaches, Flies, Ants, Insects, Rats and Mice.

The Poor Man's Hope

and comfort, the rich man's pride and safety. ROOF OR BLUE PILLS, chocolate coated, and very small. They insure health to all by unloading the congested system, giving the stomach and bowels an opportunity to perform their natural functions. They start the bile into proper channels, regulate the Liver and Bowels, they relieve sick vomiting spells and indigestion, cure Dyspepsia, Headache, Heartburn, Malaria, Fevers, etc. and soothe at Druggists.

A Wife's Advertisement.

Wives whose husbands are irritable, especially in the morning should induce them to try ROOF OR BLUE PILLS. Their lives evidently ain't right. They are bilious, maybe they don't rest good—sleep is heavy and disturbed. Peace and happiness, at 25c. or 50c. per bottle of ROOF OR BLUE PILLS, is cheap; at Druggists or mailed. They are chocolate coated, tiny little things. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.

FAIR HAVEN.

The dealers are nearly through harvesting the ice crop. Charles Palmer and Dailey cut a second crop and have their houses better stocked than usual. The Consumers' Ice company is building another ice house, building up the sides as the cakes are stored away.

L. P. Deming and C. E. Steele will give an illustrated lecture in Danbury before the state convention of the Y. M. C. A. this evening.

E. C. Allis of the Shore Line Times has had for his guest this week George W. Billings of Newton, Mass.

Rev. R. T. Cooper of the Epworth church officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Orrin Mallory on Thursday. The bearers were George Bigelow, H. W. Coe, Will Talmadge, William McDonald, Ernest Ball and Isaac Mallory.

At the funeral of Abby I. Tucker, formerly of Fair Haven, conducted from the chapel of the New Haven hospital yesterday morning, Rev. Dr. Sage officiated. The interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

The members of Bigelow council, O. U. A. M., and of Perseverance council No. 22, Daughters of Liberty, will attend service at St. James' church Sunday evening. It is the custom of the order to attend church in a body on the Sunday nearest to Washington's birthday. All members of the above orders in this locality are invited to attend. The members are requested to meet at Sons of Temperance hall at 7 p. m.

Rev. Louis J. Bamberg of Crozier Theological seminary will preach at the Grand Avenue Baptist church to-morrow. Washington's birthday was observed in the rooms of most of the Fair Haven schools, which were prettily decorated with flags, pictures, etc. The exercises were chiefly recitations and readings concerning Washington, and patriotic music.

The members of Company A of Hiram Camp division, Sons of Temperance, were entertained at supper Thursday evening by the members of Company B. The members of Company A were successful in the series of entertainments recently given and Company B agreed to give the supper. The tables were decorated with palms and azaleas and in the center was a large cake with figures representing the defeated members, while upon a tiny banner was the inscription "We Got Left." At the next meeting it is expected that members of companies will be chosen for a similar contest for the ensuing quarter.

H. J. Lewis' steamer Virginia brought in a load of oysters for the local shippers this week and another load arrived Thursday on the steamer Richard Law. Some of the dealers are having quite a trade with Boston customers and early in the week considerable stock was disposed of to Hartford dealers, who came here to buy.

L. W. Moody, the insurance agent, is at Palm Beach, Fla., for the benefit of his health, which has been poor for several weeks. He is accompanied by his wife.

The Via Dolorosa.

It is not necessary to tell the rest of the awful story. They mocked, buffeted, insulted and abused Him. A robber was preferred to Him, and was released. And so they led Him out and crucified Him.

The Via Dolorosa, the way He trod when He carried the cross, is not a street, but a continuation of sections of streets marked by the faithful, nobody knows how many years ago, with the fourteen Stations of the Church of Rome. More than once we followed Him from the so-called chapel of the scourging to the supposed place of crucifixion. Everything, in the course of ages, has been altered; the level of the roadway, if it is a roadway, has undoubtedly been raised many feet; of all the traditions of Jerusalem the present Via Dolorosa is the most vague and the most improbable; but nevertheless I followed His footsteps, I put my shoulder in the hole where His shoulder is supposed to have rested, I placed my hand on the alleged prints of His hand when the weight of the tree was to great for Him and He fell against the wall; and for the time I believed it all. It may be all tradition, and all false; but to a man brought up on the teachings of the New Testament as accepted by a good father and a good mother, it was awfully real. And I believed it all!

The so-called Calvary and Tomb, and every sacred spot connected with the awful events of the Crucifixion, are contained under one vast, irregular roof, in a series of churches and chapels called the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Within its precincts no Jews are admitted and no Jew probably ever seeks or cares for admission. The Greeks, the Copts, the Syrians, the Roman Catholics, have each their own particular place of worship, and the Protestants have none at all. The lion and the lamb live not in harmony together here, and the disciples of the Prince of peace are kept from violent warfare with each other only by the presence of an armed band of Mohammedan guards in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre itself. Oh, Jerusalem! Jerusalem!—From "The Literary Landmarks of Jerusalem," by Laurence Hutton, in Harper's Magazine for March.

EMPEROR CHARLES II.

Accompanied by half the nobility of Austria, went to the Carlsbad Springs for the recovery of his health. Six thousand six hundred horses, so the town records say, were necessary to convey the company to the place.

The virtues of the water is as great at the present day as it was in the time of Charles II., and although the expense attached to a journey thither is not as great now as it was then, we are not all wealthy enough to undertake it. For such the virtue of the Carlsbad Spring is extracted. The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt, obtained by evaporation, containing all the solid constituents of the water, can be obtained at every drug store.

It is the very best remedy for catarrh of the stomach, constipation, liver and kidney troubles, gout, rheumatism, etc. Be sure to obtain the genuine imported article, which must have the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON Co., Sole Agents, New York," on every package.
